

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS:

We need YOU to help college-age students in our new ministry stay connected with our church!

Several parishioners are needed to correspond with these young adults as they make transitions in their lives.

Your responsibilities will include sending periodic notes of encouragement, small gifts, and keeping them up to date with parish happenings via mail, email or even texting and Facebook if possible! If you are interested, call _____ for more information at 555-???